I tie natural hare's hair 3/4 of the way up the hook and brown ice dubbing for a head and it is awesome. I found a caddis in some water cress recently and remembered why that fly is so awesome. Dub one in white (dub it thick) and you have a crane fly larva. I'll go so far as to say a fly in this style will compete with any mayfly nymph.