

Subject: : Fly Tying

Topic: : Steelhead flies

Re: Steelhead flies

Author: : dano

Date: : 2009/8/16 12:08:35

URL:

In Erie, you'll see far more days with low/clear water than prime conditions.

If you like fishing streamers, make sure you tie some unweighted patterns.

White is a good choice for sight fishing. Shenks White Minnow and white mudlers do well once they absorb enough water to sink and hold in mid column.

In prime flows, it's hard to beat a clouser.