Hi Ryan - Late October/early November works for me! I was thinking a poll for the best weekend might be in order. It's gonna be a crap shoot on weather/conditions, but a last minute thing is gonna be tough for a lot of folks to swing.

I'll be making a few phone calls next week on lodging, so we'll at least have an idea on options. I'm thinking anyone that wants to camp out in a tent is a MIGHTY brave soul. Last year on Nov 8 it was almost t-shirt weather. The next day, we woke to 6" of snow.

I've been tying almost every night for this - sign me up for Team Prince Nymph. 😊
