Think that is Ron.

Don't think you get a private bedroom, there were 4 us in bunk beds in one room and we had our own bath.

There is also a micro wave and toaster as I remember, so we brought some food to warm up.

Don't think I would bring my wife but was great for us FF bums.

Hmm. Well I guess that will work. Yeah, he made it sound like we have a common area for the 4 of us and we each have our own room/bed/bathroom. I guess that isn't the case! It still sounds awesome though.
