I've been on vaca for a few days and no activity here. Lets schedule the Steelhead Jam on Halloween weekend, and the following weekend is a rain date. I have no problem trying to make it both weekends if some people can't make the first. Those who can't can discuss further plans.

So the steelhead Jam this year is October 30th, 31st, and November 1st!

Now lets discuss some details...

A meeting point would be good. I would try to stay away from the mouths, but thats where the largest parking areas are. I like Folly's end camp ground, as long as the fish are up that far (which they should be). It would be nice to maybe have a pavillion somewhere, but I'm not too sure of the best place. Anyone who can chime in on this is welcome.
