I'd certainly like to try one!

Count me in then David, thanks for hosting! Do you have a list compiled of who's in?

Afish-I'd never seen the Evil Weevil, but that's one that I certainly need to tie! Thanks for the link and photo.

I've been in a couple of swaps and I found that an empty Altoid's tin is perfect to hold flies. Even when we did a bugger/streamer swap they all fit nicely. I also like to add a tag of paper to the hook with your PAFF handle or name and pattern
