Don't take no for an answer, Jay!

In case anyone is interested, I'll be meeting Gene at Cabela's parking lot at 6AM on the 30th (Friday). While there isn't any extra passenger space in my truck, there is lots of cargo room under the cap. I'll also get you there if you've never made the trip.

It wouldn't be a bad idea to "caravan" up there - that's a really long drive! If anyone has FRS radios, they work great for vehicle to vehicle communication, as well as on stream communication if the distance isn't too great...
