

Subject: : Professional Stream Reports

Topic: : Too hot to handle

Re: Too hot to handle

Author: : YoughRiverGuide

Date: : 2009/9/22 12:50:10

URL:

I just recently read, though not in all its minute detail as it is a rather large document, the water management plan for the reservoir last week. I believe the current plan was presented and reviewed in 2004 and the short take from the powers that be was that a period of near 70 or 70 degree temps would have "minimal impact" on the fishery.

If you google youghiogheny river water management plan you can find it.