

Subject: : Conservation

Topic: : Saucon Creek dam removal

Re: Saucon Creek dam removal

Author: : Chaz

Date: : 2009/10/8 23:03:36

URL:

You know nearly every habitat work to put structure into stream is blown out by floods. some very soon after they are installed, others may last for years. But even the ones that last for years aren't permanent and will either be left to deteriorate, or repaired. Without substance forested buffers along streams and a wide undeveloped flood plain nothing is safe from floods.