

Subject: : Conservation

Topic: : Saucon Creek dam removal

Re: Saucon Creek dam removal

Author: : salvelinusfontinalis

Date: : 2009/10/12 22:11:35

URL:

Quote:

There was never a dam built to better a piece of water.

Except of those built by local sportmans clubs or uneducated "stream restorations". Those people think because they created 5 inches more depth to favorite holes they have improved the stream.

Hay Creek comes to mind 😊

You right though tom, i cant think of a real dam that was built to better the ecosystem of a stream.