I will be there on Sunday. I know that I do not know any of the people that will be there, but I will see if I can find some of you. I have to travel out there for work on Monday through Wednesday so I was thinking of leaving a day early and fish all day Sunday as well as the early part of the week in the morning and evenings.

I have never been to Erie for steelhead, but I have been to NY many times. If anyone is around the 2nd - 4th and wants to show me around a bit I would be grateful.
