I am really tightening up my plans. I'd like to spend some time with the attendees and also enjoy some fishing. What is reasonable to expect from others:

If it meets your plans, gather:

Friday Evening:

Avonia Tavern after dark?

Saturday Morning:

Pavillion from 6:45 AM until the last person leaves to go fishing?

Saturday Evening:

At the pavillion after dark with a campfire until the last fool leaves for bed?

Sunday Morning:

Pavillion from 6:45 AM until the last person leaves to go fishing or return home?
