Go to one of the big box sport stores and get her a pair of breathable boot foos for $100 or so. That will keep her dry for the three times you take her until she realizes you DON"T have a girlfriend and you really ARE fishing.

She gets a little close to you when you get back, don't she... maybe a little toooo close? Wonders why you don't smell of fish, or have any with you when you come home...Does she check to see if your boots and waders are wet???? I thought so...what ya have here is a woman with friends who've talked her into you being a cheatin heart.

...Or maybe she just wants to go fishin'. 😁
