Yes, if you exit at Donegal and take Rte 31 East about 3-4 miles, then left onto Rte 381 North, you will cross Indian Creek DHALO in a few hundred yards. It is less than 10 minutes from Donegal. Also, in that same area is Camp Run, Class A BTEP. Another 15 minutes beyond the junction of Rte 31 and 381, continuing on Rte 31, you can turn off Rte 31 and within another several miles be at the DHALO on Laurel Hill Creek and then when you come out, continue eastward on Rte 31 and re-enter at Somerset.

Bedford would be another possibility, I know there are approved trout stream close to the turnpike exit, but I'm not familiar with them specifically. You might check the PFBC County Maps for help.

Maybe someone who knows can tell you whether the Raystown Branch of the Juniata River would still be fishing OK. It would be within a few short minutes of the exit at Bedford.
