Great job! I'm glad to see PAFF back online! Thanks so much for your efforts.

Question though and by no means is this of any major concern. This is at least the 2nd time the site has been updated since I've joined and I was just wondering if there are plans to migrate the old registration dates?

Not a big deal either way, I'm just thankful the site is back up.

Thanks again for everyone's efforts involved in the upgrade!
