Paraphrases of things said by Aldo Leopold: don't have my copy of Sand County Almanac in my back pocket as per usual.

We abuse the land because we see it as a commodity that belongs to us; when we become part of the community that includes the land in its membership, we may then begin to use it as it ought to be used.

But,

Just as we will never achieve justice and liberty for all people, we will never achieve harmony with the land; however, it is important that we try.
