

Subject: : Conservation

Topic: : WINDMILLS II

Re: WINDMILLS II

Author: : troutbert

Date: : 2009/12/23 14:45:59

URL:

Does anyone know why they don't put turbines on some of the medium-sized dams/impoundments? For example Sayers Dam on Bald Eagle Creek. It's not huge, but it's not tiny either. I would think that it would generate more energy than a windmill.

And there are probably many other dams/impoundments of similar size around the state and the country that could generate electricity cleanly.

Any engineers in the house?