

---

Subject: : Warm Water & Salt Water Fly-Fishing

Topic: : MI record muskie

Re: MI record muskie

Author: : scotto

Date: : 2009/12/29 11:12:58

URL:

I suggest fishing big creeks/small rivers and small lakes to enhance your chances of hooking a musky. The Conodoquinet in Cumberland county, the Swatara in Dauphin county, Maiden Creek in Reading and the lake at Canoe Creek State Park in Blair county have all been decent for me. On the smaller bodies the fish are easier to locate. No giants yet(50"+), but I believe it will happen, most likely IMO is at Canoe Creek State Park.