When we had the Jam up there, there was an intense sulphur/drake fall crossed with a yellow caddis hatch. Some dude KILLED them on a yellow bodied caddis, of which I had none.

All except one had a raggedy look to them with alot of mandables torn off. Maybe I'm a snob but, even though the fishing was good I also love the beauty of a trout and those beat up stockers werent worth the 3 hr drive even though the surrounding beauty was.
