

Subject: : Print, Video, Audio Discussions

Topic: : Fly Fisherman

Re: Fly Fisherman

Author: : rrt

Date: : 2010/1/31 19:17:20

URL:

Fred-

Don't know if that's tongue in cheek, but if I didn't have a Sage already, I would not buy one just because of what you wrote. I will not buy another as long as Sage supports the becks. Hypocritically, since I like to read and buy ff mags, I, unfortunately, do see beck photos. I also contact the mags to voice my displeasure. I, too, would have dropped my subscription to FFM, but I receive it as a gift every Christmas from two of my favorite people who do not fly-fish, and I do not have the heart to tell them that it's not worth their money b/c they mean so well. I continue to hope that FFM goes back to its roots and gets away from the type of mag it has become.

(I would love to buy/read L. Kreh's new book of memoirs, but b/c of his association with the evil empire, I will neither buy nor read it. Maybe that's my loss, and I'm sure Kreh doesn't care, but that's the way I feel.)

Sorry so long--again.....