I've been very dissapointed in FF for the last year or so. I go back and read some of our old FF from the mid 90's and notice a lot less color photographs, but a lot more useful information. I've been buying a few different mags lately trying to find one that I really like. "Fly Fusion" seemed pretty cool, and "Fly Fish Journal" is refreshing, albeit more about philosophy than fishing facts. I'm not really sure what FF mags I want to subscribe to in the future, if any of them.
