The Prestige Reels are solid. They're identical to one made by Okuma. I'm almost certain but cannot confirm that Okuma makes them for Cabelas. I know they're identical because I have used both. For the money, you'd be hard pressed to find a better drag.

Also I have a 7 wt Prestige rod that I got with a case and line a few years ago that I used for Steelies. I don't fish for them much anymore due to crowds and the land posting. But when used, it was a solid rod for the money.
