I know of one good spot for Musky on the Susquehanna but you need a steady boat or kayak to fish it. I have yet to hook one but I'm hoping I will in the next year or two.

So far as far as warmwater goes I've caught my share of sunnies, redeyes, and smallmouth, and one walleye. I just missed a channel cat last summer and I know a few spots for carp.

If you have a boat, I got a spot for ya.
