Thanks for all the input. I have cast the TMF and it is a fantastic rod IMHO. I am not a "fast" rod type caster. So, Winstons suit me. However, I am looking for a versatile rod as I can't afford more than one rod at the $600-700 price point. The money isn't the issue, I can't afford losing my wife over a fishing rod. LOL. I'll be headed to the sportsman show in Oaks this weekend to further my research. I'm curious about the WT 8'6" 5wt and the same in the BII t.
