Maurice,

Thanks for the info. It's amazing how one rod just turns into a magic wand when you cast it. I'll take a look at the Scott as well as Sage and Winston. The nearest dealer to SE PA is Cabela's, but I won't purchase it there, I prefer to buy from a local shop if possible. The next closest is YBO. I haven't been to YBO for a while, I recall them being a Sage / Orvis shop. Has it changed hands recently?
