Welcome to the Beginners Forum. If you are brand new to fly fishing, or brushing up on some of the basics? Don't be shy! This forum is intended for new fly fishing anglers to post questions.

If you are a more accomplished angler and want to start a new thread to share a tip for beginners, please post those in the Tips and Tricks Forum.

The forum will be moderated to support the those just getting started in the sport. Debates, rants, random posts and non beginner questions are probably not a good fit for this forum and will be moved.

This website is here to help foster a shared interest in expanding our knowledge, experience and most importantly our enjoyment for fly fishing in Pennsylvania. Humor, ideas, debate, and opinions are encouraged. Deliberate insults, personal attacks, and lewd comments are not welcome for any reason.

As a community site that encourages fly fishing in Pennsylvania, this site also encourages the sharing of ideas, fish stories, stream locations, and general helping of others to learn more and become better fly fishing anglers.
