Thanks, guys. I'm in the process of deciding on a turkey vest for this season, and was looking over the packs at Cabelas since I can use my Cabela's bucks. However, I'm not exactly sure still what I want. I have a pretty loaded vest from my spin tackle days, but it's almost too much. I sort of want to go minimalistic and lightweight, but at the same time, I don't want to be without the essentials.

This pack struck my eye. Granted, I know it's "cheap" compared to many of your suggestions, but it looks to have a low profile which is what I want.

Then again, is this one of those, "you get what you pay for" deals?
