

Subject: : Conservation

Topic: : Ignorance is bliss...

Re: Ignorance is bliss...

Author: : JackM

Date: : 2007/7/24 19:41:36

URL:

I think the 5 fish limit was a balance struck between allowing an angler to take home a family meal and preventing overharvest. Most of these management decisions are based on those balances and they will tend to make neither polar opposite happy, which is the mark of a good compromise. That said, on fisheries that need extra protection (and NO I don't believe it is every wild trout stream) I have no problem with more restrictive harvest limits or prohibitions.