

Subject: : Beginner Forum

Topic: : Hi there

Re: Hi there

Author: : jmh159

Date: : 2010/3/7 20:36:38

URL:

You will also notice that when you are on the water, you make a lot less of those "conventional" casts than what you would expect. You should practice some "unconventional" casts as well. If you have a tree or bush in your yard, try to cast under the branches or stand in front of it and try to cast without a back cast. Most of the time, you will have some sort of obstical to hinder your cast when actually on the water.