I have a burning desire to purchase some form of watercraft, but I'm limited to what I can store in a garage and get to the water either on or in my vehicle.

Which means no real boats.

So, whatcha got and what kinds of places do you use it? If you're in the Eastern side of the state, and don't mind, what specific places do you use them? I'm mostly looking at fishing kayaks now because they're supposedly more stable than canoes, and not as subject to being blown around a lake (nor look as ridiculous as a 'toon).

My biggest concerns are capacity (I'm big) and stability (I can't swim at all, and yes, I'm aware that its maybe somewhat stupid to consider a boat).

So, weigh in. If anyone's interested, I can talk about what's on my mind, but I'd like to see what others are using first.
