Which lakes do you goto, LL?

The fishing packages tend to pretty much translate to "multiple rod holders." Or, so it would appear from everything I've read so far. You should try using it as a fishing platform, and then report back to me. ;)

Buggy, I haven't looked up the specifics of the trolling motor, yet, other than to know if its powered it must be registered with PA, but I don't expect any probelm there. As you've told me, its about 60# for the gear to do so, which right there is going to make most pontoon boats be a less than perfect solution with my size.

As for my feet in the water? That's not what bugs me about tubes, its all of you in the water. Ick. No thanks.
