Boy, I'd love to have a canoe. I've had my eye on this one, and with my discount, it'd be really cheap. Unfortunately, I live in an apartment, and have no outside storage available here, so my boat has to pack down to fit in a closet. No canoe or kayak is gonna do that.

That said, the idea of a small canoe is very appealing for slower waters, and Fishidiot's boat looks really nice! I can resist this temptation though, especially since the wiener dog is not included. 😊

The convenience of being able to take an extra passenger would be nice, and if you drop something in a canoe, you can just pick it up. Drop something on a pontoon, and its at the bottom of the lake.

gfen, a good selling point for S.W.M.B.O. would be that you could take the kids out in a canoe. 😊
