WVbyGodviaPA,

I look forward to everyone's idea on how we can improve the site. I hear you don't like things, but what are some your suggestions on making it better? Please feel free to add any ideas or suggestions to the Site and Forums Comments Forum.

Please look at some of my earlier post on why I had to change the site. It may explain what happened. I'll post a sticky at the top with some details later tonight.
