Martin, that John Wayne quote is one of my favorites! Good stuff right there. Come to the jam next year and you'll be in the clique and get a cougar all the while drinking to the sun not exploding 🍷 😊. Hell you can wear anybody's hat while being a name-dropper there. Unfortunately, you will be on your own on the humpuwhatever deal. Maybe if you go to a fishing website, tell everybody that you have a secret and they can't have it, then tell them they are clicky and that they ruin fishing for kids while killing puppies somebody would be kind enough to teach you how to tie a fly that they "invented" out of two flies that have existed for years. 🤪

Don't say "Hi" or "nice site", just get right into berating the regulars. That's the best way to make friends. 🤪

Oh, and tell them Billy Pate sent ya'. 😊

Boyer 😊
