It's like 1/4 mile down Heshbon rd, by the Cripple Bear. I believe it's across from Log Run Rd. It's now the bike path.

The airport is a nice stretch. It's near Trout Run. Turn down Fink road and park by the big tree (you'll see it), just before the houses/cabins start again. They've dug out the stream (for the worse) but there's still good fishing at times. Lycoming Creek Anglers usually stock there.

Yep, that's the railroad bridge. As for the airport, I fished it a while back when spin fishing. My grandfather was a member at that airport, and I've had many picnics there and even a few flights with him. I love that place.
