Jay, I'm a possibility on the drakes the weekend after. I'll be with a friend (coworker) and his son. After the jam, we're headed to camp for the week, but we gotta be out of there by Friday and we don't have to go back to work until Tuesday, so one of our options is back to central PA to try to catch the drakes.

That said, there's still some uncertainties. The buddy is favoring Potter County that weekend, while I was favoring Penns or BFC, probably Penns since its still a little on the early side for GD. And I have my own wife issues, she's making me feel guilty about a full week of fishing planned with no time seeing her, and she has a point, but dang it, this is GD's we're talking about!

My guess is we wherever we go, she joins, and I have to do her activities by day but get to fish the evenings. That said, I'll probably have the choice of area, but I'll have to decide ahead of time and won't be able to play it by ear.
