jdaddy,

I prefer to fish dry flies right now because I can see what is going on and I have no problem with using a tiny fly. Now as far as when I can fish. It varies, basically whenever I can which is usually evenings and not to often right now. My fishing area right now is the Fly Fishing Area on the Perkiomen that Montgomery County Parks regulate. I am going to try and get out this weekend and try to go later in the evening and then try and give it a shot sometime in the morning one day. Thanks to all the other reply's, it does help me understand this more.
