Just got a text from LittleLehigh... he's fishing there now and the place is packed. Must be running a special on trout fishing in the Reading area this week. It's was fisherman everywhere last weekend too.

On a Wednesday morning.... elbow to elbow. Very nice. Limited holding water in the special reg area + news of trico hatch

Sight, help is on the way. I understand there is a proposal for a double decker walkway to be installed along the Tully to accommodate the traffic. Lower level for upstream traffic and upper level for downstream. There will be ramps at every fishing hole. It still has yet to be determined if a fee will be charged and turnstiles installed.
