Not sure what started this thread -- but, I think JayL has said things that I believe. Plus, spot burning can cause loss of access. A few years back, a landowner told me that if the name of the creek where he owned land on both sides of the stream had its name put in print again, he would post. Well, it did, and he did. Even k/t icon Chuck Meck acknowledges the detrimental results of k/t in his book Memory Rising. I'm done, or I'll get myself in trouble on this topic -- yet again.
