bikerfish, the chat you me and shakey had at the campground leads me to beleive you both are folks i could learn something from. The point that you make that it's the fisherman that catches the fish is right on. Just cause i have a cane rod doesn't make me "tweedy" does it?

you can't learn anything from me ,haha!i don't catch fish,i just walk around streams all day tying knots!haha

by definition ann osprey can't be "tweeTy"haha
