My apologies to everone there and Jack. I just spent almost 2 hrs trying to put up a quality post about it and lost it all. It takes alot to post the way I do and I just dont have it in me to do it again. Besides, last time this happened, the second post wasnt as near as good as the first. I guess I can always dump the photos in the photo board.

Ed, you got a lot of thank-yous in the original. :)
