LOL, come on shakey!!!

gfen, I fish almost exclusively with medalists as well, one because I like them, the other because, well, they are the reels with line on them at the moment! most of the ones I use are 60's vintage.

wildtigertrout, good glass does feel like bamboo, only much lighter in hand. my fav glass rods that get the most use include a FREE cortland that was in my sisters house when she bought it, a heddon pal from the flea market (10bucks) and a mcfarland 8ft 5wt that I built ($$$$! doesn't belong in this thread!)

I recently got a glass blank from fhpaddock rods in NY, a 6'6" 3wt that will be my new brookie rod, got it cheap though, it was a blem!
