Andy is a really nice kid. You should have seen him launching distance casts in the parking lot at the Ramada - 100' plus with a 9' 3wt rod !

Out of curiosity, when were those shots taken? Andy wasn't wet wading at the YFFWC (at least not during the competition itself). He finished 13th overall, but it easily could have been much higher with a little better luck on draws. That kid can definitely fish with the best of 'em.
