

Subject: : Tips and Tricks

Topic: : Leaders for Nymphing

Re: Leaders for Nymphing

Author: : jdaddy

Date: : 2010/8/9 19:00:14

URL:

Would a "reverse" taper add any benefit? Since we are not worried about turning over lead, indi, flies when lobbing high stick style, would using a reverse taper help counter act the flow differences in the water column? My initial thought is that it would make a difference, however there has to be a reason people have not recommended doing so.