I've recently been retained as council for Orvis. Mr. Alpa, you are walking a dangerously thin line that borders on slander. Orvis makes fine products and I know a guy that broke a T3. They replaced it with a Helios. That's good service. I have never owned any of their products because I don't like Vermont. Good day sir. Also, Orvis can send free samples to me. I'd be willing to try the stuff.
