My post was serious. Anyone that wants to get a later than early start can go with me and jeff.

For what it's worth, I don't know all that much about the river, but I know a little. I recommend that any newbies buy Weamer's book. If you're spending the money on gas to go all the way up there, you may as well spend an extra $20 to make success much more likely. It's a no brainer. They are $15 used.
