Jay,

Sounds good. You have enough experience there to definately help w/ a group. I just don't want someone taking 4 boats down the river and missing the take out ramp. Rowing for 3 miles in the dark isn't fun (done it). Hey, you were cleaning up on the soft hackle and making everyone else look bad!

Looks like me, Apla and JG are dark to dark fisherman. If Josh gets into the Pabst pretty hard, he'll be a 11 am guy w/ you and Jeff. We'll sort things out when we get there.

I talked to Coz and he's looking forward to having us come over and talking to the group. I told him about the raffle and the money raised would go to FUDR. He thought that was a pretty cool thing on our part and said he'd help by donating some stuff. Looks like we're going to go for a Saturday morning raffle around 10-11. Brandon is giving me his broken rod to send back to Scott. Looks like we may have a brand new Scott fly rod in the raffle as well. scotto from the forum is donating a chest pack. Anyone that's donating, PM me with what you're donating and I want to make a sign with the names and items donated so that the get the proper thanks from the winners. Should be pretty cool.
