I would say that I am like trowpa. I like to be out fishing anywhere, (although not as early as he goes out). Sometimes I just walk along the stream with my dog and see if I can spot fish.

I want to learn everything I can, which has caused me to buy everthing out there and try to tie ever fly pattern known to man.

I prefer nymphng over other forms of fishing. But no matter what style I use that day, it is always great to be out on the stream.
