Been crushing the smallies on the Mac! Smallies are aggressive right now on top. I've been using half inch poppers and landing very, very, very nice fish. Too bad the susky isn't wasn't was 10 years ago.... Damn I wish I fly fished then. The Mac has been much better than in years past and I'm thankful I live so close. I'm looking forward to the fall so I can fish for stacked smallies on the susky. There still is a better chance of catching a smallie of a life time just north of Duncannon.
