

Subject: : Gear Talk

Topic: : Rookie

Re: Rookie

Author: : jaybo41

Date: : 2007/9/18 22:46:32

URL:

Sounds like a solid beginner setup, congrats! Ideally, between backing and line your spool should be filled I believe 1/3 inch in from the outer perimeter of the spool.

Also, if you're practicing on land, you might want to think about either practicing on water or getting a cheap line to cast with on land. Casting on land can chew up your line pretty good if not careful.

Good luck!